

Published on Sports Management Resources

Strategic Planning

Presenting Circumstances

- Athletics Director or senior management concern that:
  - current program goals and objectives are not clear, focused and measurable
  - athletics department resources are insufficient to achieve currently stated program goals or objectives; and/or
- Athletics director or institutional management desires comprehensive plan to guide athletics department growth over the next three to five years and such a strategic plan does not exist; and/or
- Athletics Director or institutional management concerned that while a strategic plan exists, it has not been translated to measurable goals and objectives, current year action plans and/or three to five year financial projections; and/or
- Athletics program is confronting any of the following challenges:
  - absence of consensus about the goals of the athletics program or emphasis on selected sports
  - staff burn-out, employee retention challenges
  - pressure to grow one or two sports while pursuing gender equity and lack of financial resources to do both
  - lack of planning and organizational skills by athletics director whose competence is exemplary in other critical areas
  - concern for appropriateness of competitive division and/or conference affiliation
  - gender/minority equity challenges

Overview of Consultant Deliverables

- Review of all current strategic planning documents; assessment of the current financial and program status of the athletics department
- Guide athletics director, senior staff and faculty athletics council through a strategic analysis of strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats (SWOT) with regard to:
  - management and staff capabilities
  - sports programs

- athletic department and sport reputations
- management information systems
- financial systems
- office technology capabilities
- sport facilities
- The strategic analysis will include the following methodologies:
  - collecting internal and external stakeholders' perceptions about the athletics department and specific sport programs
  - evaluating the athletics program's impact on student-athletes and the student/faculty community
  - cost/benefit analysis
  - sport by sport and overall program competitive analysis
  - · assessment of strategies being utilized
- Survey and data gathering to identify concerns of institutional officers, trustees, faculty, staff, student-athletes, donors and other stakeholders
- Review and assess data to determine critical issues and solution options
- Guide athletics director, senior staff and faculty athletics council determination of:
- vision and mission statements
- goals
- priority strategies
- measurable objectives
- Guide athletics director and senior staff in the determination of:
  - primary communications statements/plans
  - twelve month action plans including responsibilities and deadlines
  - twelve month operating budget
  - management critical indicator reporting system to oversee action plan progress
  - · revision of internal and external documents to reflect strategic plan
- Formal presentation, upon request, of results to athletics department staff, executive officers of institution and/or trustees of the institution
- Conduct evaluation of strategic planning process and results

Source URL: https://sportsmanagementresources.com/print/pdf/node/7